- The actual exchange rate when buying and selling foreign currency: the exchange rate agreed upon the foreign currency purchase and sale contract between the Company and the commercial bank.

- In cases where the contract does not specify the payment exchange rate:

- o For accounts receivable: it is the buying rate of the commercial bank where the Company designates the customer to make payment at the time of the transaction.
- o For accounts payable: it is the selling rate of the commercial bank where the Company plans to conduct the transaction at the time of the transaction.
- o For purchases of assets or expenses paid immediately in foreign currency (not through accounts payable): it is the buying rate of the commercial bank where the Company makes the payment.

- The actual exchange rate used to revalue the balance of monetary items denominated in foreign currency at the end of the period is determined according to the following principles:

- For foreign currency deposits at the bank: applies the buying rate of the bank where the Company holds the foreign currency account.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as other assets: applies the foreign currency buying rate of Ho Chi Minh City Development Joint Stock Commercial Bank (the Bank with which the Company frequently conducts transactions) as of the quarter-end date.
- For monetary items denominated in foreign currency classified as liabilities: applies the foreign currency selling rate of Ho Chi Minh City Development Joint Stock Commercial Bank (the Bank with which the Company frequently conducts transactions) as of the quarter-end date.

3. Rules for determination of actual interest rates (effective interest rates) used for discounted cash flows.

4. Rules for recording cash and cash equivalents.

Cash includes cash on hand, demand deposits and term deposits, as well as cash in transit. Cash equivalents are short-term investments with a recovery or maturity period not exceeding three months from the investment date, which can be easily converted into a specified amount of cash and carry minimal risk of conversion to cash at the reporting date.

5. Accounting rules for financial investments

a) Trading securities

b) Held to maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments include term deposits at banks.

Held-to-maturity investments are initially recognized at cost, including the purchase price and related transaction costs of acquiring the investments. After initial recognition, these investments are recorded at their recoverable value. Interest income from held-to-maturity investments after the purchase date is recognized in the Income Statement on an accrual basis.

c) Loans

d) Investments in subsidiaries; joint ventures and associates

The investments in subsidiaries are initially recorded at cost, including the capital contributions and any directly related costs of the investment. In the case of investments using non-cash assets, the investment amount is recognized at the fair value of the non-cash assets at the time of occurrence.

Dividends and profits from the investment are recognized as financial revenue. Dividends received in the form of shares are tracked by the number of additional shares, but the value of the shares received is not recorded.

Provisions for impairment of investments in subsidiaries are made when the subsidiary incurs a loss, with the provision equal to the difference between the actual capital contribution in the subsidiary and the actual equity of the Company in the subsidiary, and are recorded as financial expenses.

dd) Investments in equity instruments of other entities: initially recorded at cost, including the purchase price or capital contribution plus any directly related costs to the investment activity. Dividends and profits are recognized as financial income.

Dividends received in the form of shares are tracked by the number of additional shares, without recognizing the value of the shares received.

e) Methods of accounting for financial investment-related transactions

6. Accounting rules for receivables

The receivables are presented at their book value, minus the provision for doubtful debts.

The provision for doubtful debts is made for each receivable based on the aging of the debts or the estimated loss that may occur.

7. Rules for recording inventories:

- Rules for recording inventories: Inventory is recognized at actual cost.
- Methods for calculating value of inventories: The value of materials and tools at the end of the period is calculated using the specific identification method; the value of fuel inventory at the end of the period is calculated using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method.
- Methods for recording inventories: The perpetual inventory system is used.
- Methods for creating allowances for decline in value of inventories: A provision for inventory devaluation is recognized when the original cost exceeds the net realizable value. The net realizable value is the estimated selling price of the inventory minus the estimated costs to complete the product and the estimated costs necessary to sell it.

8. Rules for recording depreciation of fixed assets, finance lease fixed assets, investment properties:

Tangible fixed assets are presented at cost less accumulated depreciation and are depreciated using the straight-line method according to the regulations in Circular No. 45/2013/TT-BTC dated 25 April 2013 of the Ministry of Finance.

9. Accounting rules for BCC.

10. Accounting rules for deferred corporate income tax.

11. Accounting rules for prepaid expenses.

12. Accounting rules for liabilities.

The liabilities are recognized for the amount payable in the future related to goods and services that have been received.

13. Rules for recording borrowings and finance lease liabilities.

14. Rules for recording and capitalizing borrowings.

The principle of recognizing borrowing costs: Borrowing costs include interest on borrowings and other expenses directly related to borrowings, which are recognized as financial expenses in the period.

15. Rules for recording accrued expenses.

16. Rules and methods for recording provisions.

17. Rules for recording unearned revenues.

18. Rules for recording convertible bonds.

19. Rules for recording owner's equity:

- Rules for recording contributed capital, capital surplus, conversion options on convertible bonds, other owner's equity: The owner's contributions are recognized based on the actual capital contributed by shareholders and owners.
- Rules for recording differences upon asset revaluation.
- Rules for recording exchange differences: According to the provisions of Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014 of the Ministry of Finance and Circular No. 53/2016/TT-BTC dated 21 March 2016 amending and supplementing some articles of Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014 of the Ministry of Finance.
- Rules for recording undistributed profit.

20. Rules and methods for recording revenues:

- Revenues from sale;
- Revenues from services rendered: is recognized when the following conditions are simultaneously satisfied: Revenue can be reliably determined; economic benefits will be received from the transaction of providing goods or services; the portion of work completed at the reporting date can be determined; the costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the service transaction can be determined. In cases where the service is performed over multiple periods, revenue is recognized in the period based on the completion of work as of the end of the accounting period.
- Financial income: This includes dividends received (if any) from entities in which the company has invested, as well as interest on bank deposits and bond interest. Bank interest is recognized on an accrual basis, determined based on the balance of deposit accounts and the actual interest rate for each period. Dividends are recognized when the company is entitled to receive dividends or profits from its investments.
- Revenues from construction contract.
- Other income

21. Accounting rules for revenue deductions

The revenue deductions include sales discounts arising in the same period, which are adjusted to reduce the revenue of the period in which they occur.

22. Accounting rules for costs of goods sold.

The cost of goods sold during the period is recognized in accordance with the revenue generated in the period and ensures compliance with the prudential principle. Instances of material and goods loss exceeding the standard allowance, costs exceeding normal levels, and inventory losses after deducting the responsibility of relevant individuals or groups... are fully and timely recorded into the cost of goods sold for the period.

23. Accounting rules for financial expenses.

The expenses recognized as financial expenses include:

- Borrowing costs;
 - Provisions for investment losses in other units, losses arising from foreign currency sales, exchange rate losses, etc.
- These expenses are recognized based on the total amount incurred during the period, without offsetting against financial revenue.

24. Accounting rules for selling expenses and general administration expenses.

Expenses are amounts that reduce economic benefits recognized at the time the transaction occurs or when there is a relatively certain possibility that they will occur in the future, regardless of whether money has been paid or not. Expenses and revenues they generate must be recognized simultaneously according to the matching principle.

25. Rules and methods for recording current enterprise income tax expenses, deferred enterprise income tax expenses: as guided in Circular No. 200/2014/TT-BTC dated 22 December 2014 of the Ministry of Finance and in accordance with the provisions of Standard No. 17 (Decision No. 12/2005/QĐ-BTC) issued on 15 February 2005 of the Ministry of Finance.

26. Other accounting rules and methods.
